"Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you (falsely) because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven." -Mt 5:10-12

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

From Father Copp

This past week Attorney Mitchell Garabedian published a list compiled from the cases of his clients who have accused Boston priests of sexual abuse. I was disturbed and disappointed to see the name of our former pastor, Monsignor William B. Shea, on the list. Although I have been involved in the process of dealing with these cases as Promoter of Justice for the Archdiocese—representing the Church and the victim-survivors in some of the ecclesiastical trials—I was not aware that any formal complaint had been made against Monsignor Shea or that any settlement had been given.

Involvement in these cases has been, for me, a mixed blessing. On the one hand I am happy to be part of the resolution of the canonical issues involved, to be part of the long-range solution, if you will. On the other hand, I am dismayed and angry when I read the material in these case files, some of which involved priests I thought I knew.

I can assure you that the outstanding cases are being vigorously pursued and that our policies for the protection of children and other vulnerable individuals are in place and seem to be working to prevent a recurrence of this very dark time in our history as a church.

If you, or anyone you know, need to bring forward an additional complaint against Monsignor Shea, or against any other priest or parish staff person who formerly worked in our parish, please do so. You may do this with complete assurance that you will be listened to and your complaint will be acted upon.

To maintain complete confidentiality, please address any e-mails to my office at the Pastoral Center in Braintree: RCopp@rcab.org. You may also telephone me at 617.542.1776 or write to me c/o of the parish office at 30 Taylor Street, Waltham 02453. Mark the envelope CONFIDENTIAL. If you are more comfortable meeting with me at the Pastoral Center in Braintree on a weekday rather than at the parish, you are welcome to do so.

Catholics Come Home Initiative

Many thanks for your generosity to last week's Second Collection in support of the Archdiocese of Boston's outreach initiative, Catholics Come Home. Contributions totaling $1,495 were made by this parish to enable us to join with all the parishes in the Archdiocese to air commercials this Lent, as we invite home our brothers and sisters who are distant from the life of the Church.

Each person in our parish can continue to pray for hearts to be open to our invitation. And, we can speak of the good things God has done for us, "boasting in the Lord," as St. Paul reminds us in today's second reading. We can also dedicate ourselves to living more fully the Beatitudes so that all we say and do is a blessing to others and leads them to give glory to God who is our constant help.

Each year, in the fall, our parish hosts an Annual Holiday Bazaar. This yearly bazaar, acknowledged to be the best in our local area, requires involved and lengthy preparation. Parishioners meet throughout the year to prepare handcrafted items and to collect "white elephant" items for some of the tables. New talent is always appreciated and needed.
