

Glenmary Candidates Off to Missions

Members of the Special Year class, or novitiate, in the Glenmary Home Missioners have completed two months of training at Glenmary headquarters in Fairfield, Ohio, and have been assigned to missions in six states. They will return to Fairfield early in 1978 to complete the year of studies. In addition to the 13 men in the Special Year class, 23 other men are preparing to become Glenmary priests or brothers. In the photo above at the Fairfield headquarters are members of the Special Year class and their two directors. They are, from left, front row, Larry Johnson, Strongsville, O. (arms folded); Father John Brockman, Special Year director; Mike Morand, Wilmington, O.; Marty Mellett, Bethel Park, Pa., and Dave Means (lower right), St. Louis; top row, Dave Kreher (extreme left), Smithton, Ill.; Bill Wright, Glen Ellyn, Ill.; Alan Balicki, Garden City, Mich.; Ted Wisniewski (in dark shirt and white bands), Milwaukee; Mike Swegle, Chicago; Mike Brunner, Fairfield, O.; Father Bob Dalton, assistant director; Francois Pellisier, Paris, France; John Brown, Arlington, Mass., and Fid Levri (with glasses), Rural Valley, Pa.